Motorman Speaks Describes His Wife and Family.
And Leaves Them in Desperate Circumstances—The Wife on the Hunt for Him.

Several months ago M. A. Spees came here from Spencerville and, securing a position on the street railroad as an extra motorman, commenced boarding at the City Hotel, on the corner of High and Union streets.

Occasionally he went home and remained over Sunday with his family, and about three weeks ago stated to the other railway employees that since he had a position here, he would remove his family to this city.

Two weeks ago Saturday night, he left the hotel, stating that he was going home, but only a few days afterwards his wife arrived in the city and attempted to find some trace of him, but was unable to learn anything concerning his whereabouts and returned home where she has a family of four children.

While in this city Mrs. Spees stated that she was greatly surprised at the actions of her husband because they had never had any domestic trouble.

DURING THEIR MARRIED LIFE, and that she was at the time of his disappearance, according to his instructions, preparing to move to this city, and had all their household goods packed and ready for transportation.

Spees was not discharged from the service of the Street Railway company, and had not resigned from their employ. He left the company of his own free will, and was indebted to Mr. Lipfert, proprietor of the City Hotel, for several weeks board.

His wife was in the city again the other day and applied to the police for assistance in finding her husband, but her efforts were fruitless, and she was again compelled to return to her home alone.

LET OUT

Well Known F. F. W. & C. Men Released from Service.

The recent strike has resulted in many of the railroads letting out the employees who figured more or less in the trouble. Among the men on the P. F. W. & C. who were let out are the following who are well known in this city:

Freight conductors Tremmel, Dorje, Hume, O'Rourke and Gus Kilgore, formerly of the C. H. & D., and passenger conductor John Sloan, the latter being released for a violation of the rules.

THROWN OUT.

George Zwahlen's Frightful Experience in a Runaway.

Mr. George Zwahlen, of 114 East Market street, while exercising a team of horses yesterday evening, had quite a frightful and perilous experience. The animals became frightened at an electric car on East Market street, near Jackson, and began to run away. The team lurched at the corner of Jackson street, upsetting the vehicle, but fortunately not injuring the driver, who was thrown out. Those who witnessed the accident pronounced his escape miraculous.

WILL STRIKE.

The Mackinaw Employees Demand a Restoration of Wages.

VAN WERT, July 17.—(Special.)—About two months ago the wages of all employees of the Mackinaw railroad were reduced. The trainmen protested against the cut, and were promised by the manager that the old rate would be restored on the 15th of July. The promise has not been fulfilled, and a committee of trainmen from this city are now in Toledo in an effort to have the rate restored according to agreement. If it is not restored a strike will be immediately declared and the road tied up. The trainmen are determined in their demand.

ONCE MORE.

Frankie Seals Took on a Big Package Last Night.

Frankie Seals, who presides over a saloon opposite the P. F. W. & C. depot, took aboard a good sized package last night and created a good deal of disturbance in the vicinity of his place of business. Policeman Kennedy attempted to quiet her, threatening her with arrest, when, it is said, she gave him a disgraceful long hair, but she was finally quieted without being arrested.

ON SUSPICION.

A Former Lima Man is in Jail at Marysville.

Charley Lisenauer Arrested for Alleged Complicity in a Robbery at Richwood.

Word was received here yesterday afternoon from Richwood, a small town near Marysville, southwest of this city, to the effect that Charley Lisenauer, formerly of this city, was under arrest there on suspicion of being connected with the recent robbery of a store from which the entire stock was taken and hauled away by the burglars.

Lisenauer was up to a few months ago, in the saloon business in this city, being located at Wayne and Union streets. After selling out he went to Richwood and opened a saloon. Lisenauer was a quiet and peaceable citizen when here and the news of his being suspected of being implicated with any one in committing a robbery will be a great surprise to his acquaintances here, and they will be glad to believe the charges against him, and it will be a great surprise to them if he is not acquitted.

It seems, from the following account of the arrests made Saturday that there has been

A GANG IN OPERATION at Richwood and the surrounding country for some time.

Captain John Cunningham, ex-Marshall of the village, who was formerly a policeman of Cincinnati, was arrested Saturday charged with assisting in the burglary of W. H. Richards' tailor store on the morning of the 10th. He was for eight years marshal of the town. While marshal there were many burglaries committed and but few ever received much attention. There were five burglaries committed in one night while he was marshal. There is a strong claim of evidence that there has been a strongly organized company of burglars, house thieves and the like which has its chief place of business at Prospect, a little village on the Scioto river in Marion county, and at Richwood. The barber brothers, of Prospect, are under bonds for their appearance at the September term of court for horse stealing, and now they have been charged under additional bonds for the Richards burglary. Some of the prominent citizens are supposed to be implicated in this affair, and Chas. Lisenauer, a saloon keeper, is under arrest on suspicion. Other arrests will follow. Richards' entire stock of tailoring goods, valued at $1,500, was hauled away.

RUN DOWN.

Arrest of the Fellows Who Worked the Millers.

The TIMES-DEMOCRAT several weeks ago contained an account of how a couple of fellows were victimizing millers throughout the county, by visiting them and representing that they had grain for sale. After the deal was made they would ask for an advance of $15 or $20, and securing it, at would be the last seen of them. They victimized the Delphos millers a short time ago, and warrants were issued for their arrest. Last Saturday an officer from Delphos was in the city and found one of the fellows in the Lima House bar room and placed him under arrest and took him to Delphos. His name was Fred Sager, and he implicated Bernard Schwartzengraber, of Putnam county. He was also arrested and they were heavily fined and sentenced to the work house, and were taken there by Sheriff Fisher to-day.

FARMER CAMPBELL

Writes Again About the Ditches in Allen County.

He Tells "What He Knows About Farming" and Shows His Connection With the Sale of "A Voter."

News for this morning edition of the REPUBLIC being rather more scarce than usual—an entirely unnecessary condition—the versatile editor again assumes the garb of a farmer and tells the people what he knows about farming, more especially that part of farming which relates to ditches. He abuses the county surveyor because a ditch is being built in Perry township which will cost the people along it a few dollars each for many dollars worth of benefit. As a matter of fact, this big ditch in Perry township will prove of incalculable value to the property along it. With the sufficiency of outlet which Surveyor Cronley has provided, the big ditch, which is seven miles long, will give excellent drainage to the entire Camp Creek valley, and the additional crops which can be produced by reason of the drainage will in one year pay for all assessments. The working sections of the ditch were sold by Engineer Cronley last Saturday and were bid off at very low prices, many sections being sold at less than 50 per cent of the price per cubic yard ordinarily estimated as the cost of work of that character.

Mr. Cronley's work on Camp Creek ditch will be satisfactory, and more it is examined the better will people be satisfied with it.

There is the same percentage of truth in Farmer Campbell's statements about Mr. Cronley over the signatures of "A Voter," that there is in the statements that he made on Sunday concerning Thomas R. Shaw, which he humbly retracted this morning.

JOHN MORRISSEY'S TROUBLES.

Done up by Two Different Men, a Warrant is Issued for His Arrest.

John Morrissey, the fellow who got his head badly cut in a scrap with John Mahoney, yesterday, an account of which appeared in the TIMES-DEMOCRAT, appeared at the police station last evening and filed an affidavit against the latter charging him with assault and battery.

The trouble started yesterday morning, when Morrissey, assaulted Jerry Mahoney in the C. H. & D. yards, and the latter defended himself with a monkey wrench.

This did not seem to settle Morrissey, and yesterday afternoon he appeared another car. Inspector named John Mahoney and called him a scab, whereupon John punched his head. Both the Mahoneys appeared before the mayor this morning, and Jerry, whom Morrissey assaulted yesterday morning, filed a charge against him for assault.

NEIGHBORS SURAP.

Mrs. Middaugh Fined for Attempting to Provokes a Breach of Peace.

Late yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ella Rosen, who lives at 741 St. Johns avenue, appeared before Mayor Smiley and swore to an affidavit charging Mrs. John Middaugh with attempting to provoke a breach of the peace by calling her some very uncomplimentary names.

Mrs. Middaugh was notified and appeared at the mayor's office about 10 o'clock this morning. She pleaded guilty to the charge and was assessed $3.00, which was the amount of the costs in the case.

Mrs. Middaugh and her husband recently separated because they could not get along together, and it is now apparent that she will have to separate from her neighbors.

She paid the amount she was assessed and was released.

SAMMY AND JENNIE.

They Have a War of Words Until the Police Appear.

Sam O'Neill and Jennie Nix, who conducts a place opposite the P. F. W. & C. passenger depot, became involved this morning in a quarrel and there is no telling what the result would have been had it not been for the arrival of policeman Baker, but when he put in an appearance Sammy had fled and, as Jennie did not want to file a complaint against him he will not be arrested.

Policeman Baker warned Jennie that he would pull the house the next time there was any trouble at her place, and he would see if that way of getting at the matter wouldn't put a stop to the annoyance.

This afternoon O'Neill revisited the Nix woman's house and tried to kick in a door because he was refused admittance, when policeman Baker came along and escorted him to the police station.

GETS BACK AT HIM.

Mont Irwin Charges Fred Hancock with Provoking a Breach of the Peace.

Mont Irwin, the hack driver for Yoakum & Phillips, who gave Fred Hancock a Mussey driver, a black eye at the C. H. & D. depot yesterday afternoon, appeared before the mayor this morning and pleaded guilty to the charge of assault, which was filed against him by Hancock, and then retaliated by filing a charge against the latter for provoking a breach of the peace.

The trouble originated through Hancock trying to transfer a lady passenger to the C. H. & D. depot, when she had already purchased a ticket which entitled her to be transferred in one of Yoakum & Phillips' hacks.

Hancock's case will be heard later.

IRWIN ASSAULTS HANCOCK.

At 2:30 this afternoon when the C. H. & D. passenger train arrived from the north, Hancock was leaning against his hack, when Irwin threatened him for having him arrested, and finally walked up and dealt him a blow in the face. The latter returned the blow, when Irwin grabbed him and beat him until a stranger separated the two.

Hancock again went to the police station and filed another affidavit charging Irwin with assault and battery.

The C. H. & D. company is very justly indignant over the fights of yesterday and to-day, and have instructed Policeman Baker to arrest Irwin and a complaint will be filed against him for fighting.

Irwin has not been seen since the fight occurred.

ALL WERE KILLED.

Two Hundred Sticks of Dynamite Exploded in a Crowd.

HAZELTON, Pa., July 17.—(Special.)—Two hundred sticks of dynamite exploded this morning among a crowd of men who were preparing to go to work at the Stockton mine. The exact number of killed is not known, but is placed at a dozen. The cause is unknown, as all were killed.

A DESTRUCTIVE MOB

Dispersed by the Indiana Militia at Hammond.

HAMMOND, Ind., July 17.—(Special.)—A mob of five hundred men, armed with picks and crowbars tried to tear up the Michigan Central tracks five miles east of here, when the Indiana militia dispersed them.

WALKED OFF A TRAIN.

Detective Stanley Bush, of the C. H. & D., Injured.

He Stopped Off a Moving Passenger Train While Walking in His Sleep.

Detective Stanley Bush, of the C. H. & D., had a miraculous escape from a bad accident, if not instant death, about 12:40 o'clock to-day.

Detective Bush, whose headquarters in Lima, has been putting in the greater part of his time guarding the company's property at Toledo since the strike has been on there, and has been deprived of sleep. He had been on duty constantly for the past two days and nights, and the situation there having quieted down to-day he started to come to Lima on passenger train No. 5, due here at 12:30 o'clock.

The train was about ten minutes late and Detective Bush, who was sleeping in the smoker, was noticed to get up as the train was pulling through the yards, and picking up a bundle he was bringing along, left his seat and walked toward the forward end of the car. Conductor Jerry Conkley, in speaking of the affair afterward, said he noticed Bush go out

The door but supposed he was conscious of what he was doing and would not attempt to get off until the train stopped. As the train neared McKibben street and had begun to slow up for the P. F. W. & C. crossing, Bush stepped off and was thrown to the ground.

Bush was immediately stopped and the train men ran toward him, expecting to find him cut to pieces. Fortunately in falling his body landed far enough from the rails to prevent his being run over, but his left foot rested so near the rail that the sole of his shoe was cut by the wheels as the train passed.

Bush was unconscious when picked up, and was carried into the yardmaster's office at McKibben street. Mrs. Kahle were summoned and an examination disclosed that he had escaped without any broken bones or cuts, but it was about fifteen minutes before he regained consciousness.

The accident was the result of his trying to account for the affair, that the last thing he remembered was taking out his watch and finding the time to be 12:33 o'clock. Several big bruises on his head and body are the extent of his injuries.

Excursion to Dayton.

The C. H. & D. will run an excursion to the Soldiers' Home on the 18th of July. Cheap rates of transportation.

Attention, Mart Armstrong Post.

Regular meeting will be held Wednesday evening, July 18, 1894. A full attendance is desired.
